ALFONSO GARCIA, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,

CASE NO: 1:22-cv-04337-ENV-SJB

Plaintiff,

vs.

JACK’S EGGS AND OTHER INGREDIENTS,
LLC, d/b/a JACK’S EGG FARM, *a New York
limited liability company*, and MORDECAI
NEUSTADT, an individual,

Defendants.

-----X

AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Alfonso Garcia (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Law Offices of Nolan Klein, P.A., hereby sues Jack’s Eggs and Other Ingredients, LLC d/b/a Jack's Egg Farm (“Corporate Defendant”) and Mordecai Neustadt (hereinafter “Individual Defendant”) (Corporate Defendant and Individual Defendant are referred to collectively as “Defendants”), and alleges:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and for violations of the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. Tit. 12, § 146-1.6

(the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees, and costs.

2. Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, and/or as a collective action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf of himself individually, and all other of Defendants’ similarly situated employees and former employees.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), 28 U.S.C. § 1337 (interstate commerce), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question). Supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this District, Defendants operate their business in this District, and Plaintiff was employed in this District.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff is over the age of 18 years, sui juris, and is a resident of this District.

6. Corporate Defendant is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

7. Corporate Defendant is a food supply company located at 130 44th St., Brooklyn, NY 11232, doing business as Jack’s Eggs Farm.

8. On information and belief, Individual Defendant Mordecai Neustadt is over the age of 18 years, sui juris, and owns (in whole or in part), operates, and/or controls the Corporate Defendant, and/or has authority over rates of pay and schedules of employees within the Corporate Defendant’s business.

9. Individual Defendant is sued herein individually in his capacity as, on information and belief, he is an owner, officer and/or agent of Corporate Defendant.

10. Defendants are an enterprise as defined by the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

11. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

12. Upon on information and belief, the Corporate Defendant had, at all times material hereto, a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000.00.

13. Upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were and are directly engaged in interstate commerce.

FACTS

14. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was and is a former employee of the Defendants within the meaning of the FLSA and NYLL.

15. Plaintiff worked for the Defendants for approximately seven (7) years, from 2015 through February 2022.

16. Plaintiff was employed to handle heavy machinery, to assemble large orders, to gather and package goods including eggs, flour, and sugar, and to load and unload trailers.

17. Plaintiff regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, including flour, sugar, eggs, and other such items.

18. Plaintiff's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

19. Plaintiff worked for Defendants from Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to approximately 6.30 p.m. He also worked many Sundays from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Accordingly, Plaintiff worked anywhere from 57 to 67 hours per week or more, depending on the week.

20. Defendants never granted Plaintiff a meal break or rest period of any kind.

21. Plaintiff was forced to eat his meals while working (on days when he was able to eat anything during the day at all).

22. According to Defendants' records provided in this case, Plaintiff was paid between $400 and $600 dollars per week, as a flat weekly rate, during the course of his employment.

23. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was often paid in cash with no pay stubs provided, and was sometime paid by check.

24. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff any overtime premium (time and a half) for hours worked over forty (40) in each workweek.

25. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with wage statements at the time of payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked, and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

26. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff, at the time of hiring, a statement in English and the employee's primary language (in this case, Spanish), containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

27. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he worked 10 hours or more.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees, including non-exempt employees working in other departments of the Corporate Defendant business.

29. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff and similarly situated individuals by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL.

RULE 23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

30. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf, and as a class action, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, on behalf of a class of individuals defined as follows: Any and all individuals employed by Defendants at Defendants’ food supply company located at 130 44th St., Brooklyn, NY 11232 at any time during the six-year period preceding the date on which this complaint was filed (the “Class”).

31. Excluded from the Class is any person who is an executive, professional, managerial, or other employee of Defendants who is exempt from coverage under the NYLL and FLSA, and not subject to the protections of those laws.

32. The members of the class are so numerous that joinder of all Class members is not practical. The size of the class will be determined through discovery.

33. Plaintiff’s claims are typical of those of the Class. Plaintiff, along with every member of the Class, has suffered violations of applicable labor laws, including each of the violations complained of by Plaintiff herein.

34. Plaintiff will adequately protect the interests of all members of the Class and has retained competent legal counsel experienced class action litigation as well as FLSA and NYLL litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to the interests of the Class.

35. A class action is by far the most efficient way by which to resolve all FLSA and NYLL claims belonging to any current or former Employee of Defendants, which occurred at any time within the relevant limitations period. The expense and burden associated with individual litigation of each claim held by each member of the Class would be extraordinarily inefficient for Defendants, for member of the Class, and for courts of this District.

36. Common questions of law and fact prevail with respect all members of the Class and predominate over questions applicable solely to individual Class members. Among such common questions of law and fact is whether Defendant has violated its state and federal legal obligations by failing to comply with FLSA and NYLL requirements in the manner alleged by Plaintiff herein, such that all members of the Class are owed minimum, overtime, and/or spread of hours pay, as well as damages for failure to provide required wage and other notices.

37. Plaintiff knows of no special or unique difficulty that would be encountered in the management of this litigation that might preclude its maintenance as a class action.

38. The names and addresses of Class members are readily discernable from the Defendants' business records. Notice of this case to each member of the Class, along with notice to each member of the Class that he/she will need to opt-out of the Class or otherwise be barred from pursuing future action, can be delivered by U.S. Mail, or electronic mail (where applicable), using technique and a form of notice similar to those customarily used in class action litigation in the District, and can additionally be posted at Defendants' place of business, or by other means that are likely to reach members of the Class.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

39. Plaintiff brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the “FLSA Class”), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them at any time during the three-year period prior to this Complaint being filed (the “FLSA Class Period”).

40. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and were subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage and overtime.

41. The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of the other similarly situated employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of the Minimum Wage Provisions of the FLSA)

42. Plaintiff re-avers and re-alleges the allegations set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.

43. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were Plaintiff’s employer (and employer of the putative FLSA Class members) within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d).

44. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff (and the FLSA Class members), controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for their employment.

45. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants were engaged in commerce or in an industry or activity affecting commerce.

46. Defendants constitute an enterprise within the meaning of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 203 (r-s).

47. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the FLSA class members at the applicable minimum hourly rate, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 206(a).

48. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the FLSA class members at the applicable minimum hourly rate was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

49. Plaintiff and the FLSA class members were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

60. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of NYLL § 663.

61. Plaintiff was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of the Spread of Hours Wage Order of the New York Commissioner of Labor)

62. Plaintiff re-avers and re-alleges the allegations set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.

63. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff one additional hour's pay at the basic minimum wage rate before allowances for each day Plaintiff's spread of hours was ten hours or more in violation of NYLL §§ 650 et seq. and 12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§ 146-1.6.

64. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff an additional hour's pay for each day Plaintiff's spread of hours was ten hours or more was willful within the meaning of NYLL § 663.

65. Plaintiff was damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION (VIOLATION OF THE NOTICE AND RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENTS OF THE NEW YORK LABOR LAW)

66. Plaintiff re-avers and re-alleges the allegations set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.

67. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiffs' primary language), of his rate of pay, regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

68. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff in the amount of $5,000, together with costs and attorneys' fees.
